

Adding a comment

You add a comment as follows:

1. Click on the post title or the “comment” link at the top or at the bottom of the post.
2. Scroll down the page to the comment form or click on Reply (to reply to a specific comment).
3. Enter your name and email address – your email address is hidden and only the blogger sees it. If you are logged into your Edublogs account you won't need to add these details.
4. Write your comment.
5. Enter the anti-spam word.
6. Select the “ ” if you want to be notified by email to comments by other readers.
7. Now click ‘Submit Comment’.

The image shows a screenshot of the Edublogs comment form with several red lines pointing to specific fields and buttons, accompanied by text labels:

- Name  and Email  fields: Sue Waters and sue@edublogs.org. Label: Name and email address
- Website field: Not required.
- Comment field: Hi Dan
Thanks for the reminder. I'm planning on adding Thinglink to our cool tools that you can embed into posts and pages – <http://teacherchallenge.edublogs.org/step-8-cools-tools-to-embed/>. Label: Your comment
- Anti-spam field: count sun. Label: Anti spam word
- Security question: To prove you are a person (not a spam script), type the security word shown in the picture. The image shows the words "count sun" written in blue cursive. Label: Submit comment
- Post Comment button. Label: Submit comment
- Notify me of followup comments via e-mail CANCEL REPLY. Label: Email notification of follow up comments
